STEPH SEZ SCOOP

Pop artist Romero Britto (seen here with SOBeFIT magazine Editor-In-Chief Marta Montenegro) opened his gallery Britto Central for SOBeFIT magazine's inaugural Fittest Person of the Year event. Britto and Montenegro unveiled a beautiful painting and two sculptures that will be awarded to the two winners of the Fittest Person of the Year contest in October. Each sculpture is valued at $15,000. The event itself was inspirational as it promoted health and wellness to its guests.
